

Online Roundtable on Capacity Development in the Water and Sanitation Sector in Africa

organized by German Water Partnership (GWP) and the Federal German Association for Small and Medium-Sized Businesses (BVMW)

Date and time: Thursday, 19 November 2020, 10h00-11h45 (CET)

Venue: online via ZOOM : register and dial in link

AGENDA

Facilitated by Andreas Jahn (Member of the BVMW Management Board and Manager Foreign Affairs at BVMW) and Michael Kersting (Business Development at Hermann Sewerin GmbH)

Time	Agenda item	Speaker
10:00-10:10	Opening Remarks	Bienvenue Angui Deputy Manager Foreign Affairs, BVMW Julia Braune Managing Director, GWP
10:10-10:20	Keynote	H.E. Yusuf Maitama Tuggar Ambassador of the Federal Republic Nigeria to Germany
10:20-10:30	Keynote	Representative of the Ministry of Water, Senegal
10:30-10:40	Capacity Development in the water and sanitation sector in Africa – perspectives from water and sanitation utilities across Africa	Sylvain Usher Executive Director, African Water Association
10:40-10:50	Q+A Session	Andreas Jahn, Michael Kersting & Audience
10:50-11:00	Best Practice: Capacity Development in the water and sanitation sector in Senegal – a German company perspective	Gor Muradyan Branch Manager Senegal, Ludwig Pfeiffer Hoch- und Tiefbau GmbH & Co. KG
11:00-11:10	Challenges and opportunities in implementing water and sanitation related projects in Nigeria – a German company perspective	Gerhard Simon Director Sales Western Europe / Sales Development EMEA, LANXESS Deutschland GmbH
11:10-11:20	Presentation of a potential water-related project in Nigeria	Volker Korrman Managing Director, ewind Betreiber- und Vertriebs GmbH
11:20-11:30	Statement from the German Parliament	Johannes Selle Member of the German Parliament
11:30-11:45	Discussion and Closing	Andreas Jahn, Michael Kersting & Audience